

Study Guide: Steps to Christ

“Growing Up Into Christ”

1. Give two illustrations from nature used in the Bible to describe birth as children of God. (67)
2. How is Christian growth illustrated from nature? (67)
3. In what way does nature illustrate there should be no care or anxiety in Christian growth? (68)
4. How is a continued Christian growth assured? (69)
5. What should be the very first work of the day? (70)
6. How shall we "plan" each day? (70)
7. How do you understand the following statement: "A life in Christ is a life of restfulness"? (70)
8. "It is by _____ Him, _____ Him, _____ wholly upon Him, that you are to be transformed into His _____." (71)
9. What will be the experience of those who rest most fully upon Christ? (71)
10. To what subjects will Satan seek to divert our attention? (71)
11. How only may the tie of love between Christ and humanity be broken? (72)
12. John, the disciple, was not naturally loving. How did he become so? (73)

13. What lessons might we learn from the disciples' experience after Jesus returned to heaven? (74, 75)